

The Purpose of Tao

To respect the Heavens and Earth.

To worship God and revere the spiritual saints and sages.

To be patriotic, royal, and responsible.

To be of virtuous character and follow the rules of the in correctness manners.

To joyfully love, honor, respect, support, and be obedient to one's parents to let them live worry-free lives.

To honor and respect one's teachers and elders.

To be faithful to friends.

To live harmoniously with neighbors.

To rid oneself of bad habits and evil, and to pursue good thoughts and deeds.

To expound upon the Five Bonds of Human Relationships and the Eight Cardinal Virtues.

To preach the main principles of the founders of the five religions.

To obey and respectfully practice the Four Ethical Principles, the Three Mainstays of Social Order and the constant Virtues.

To cleanse the mind, purify the soul and eliminate unclean thought.

To cultivate one's true self by utilizing untruths.

To recover one's original Buddha-nature.

To continually develop one's innate wisdom and natural abilities until perfection is achieved.

To establish and reach one's own goals and to help others do so.

To transform the world into a peaceful, honest, and orderly society.

To enlighten the minds of people and enable them to return to a state of benevolence.

To pursuing this path, to bring the world into a state of harmony, equality, fraternity, and justice—The World of Da-Tong.